Warner Voting

The General Election is Tuesday, November 5, 2024. 7AM - 7PM, Warner Town Hall
The Town Clerk's office will be closed on Election Day.
Absentee Ballot Information and Absentee Ballot Request Form NEW! Sample Ballot

Stop by the WHS bake sale and swag table after voting to buy some well-deserved treats. It's a delicious way to support the Historical Society.

To register to vote on Election Day, please provide the following:

 Photo ID, such as a Driver's License or School ID

 Birth certificate or Passport/Card or Naturalization paperwork

 Proof of Residency: if your Driver's License only has a PO Box for an address, please provide something with your name and physical address, such as a car registration, lease, or utilities bill with your name on it.

Having these documents ready will help to make the process faster and easier. If you do not have everything, there are affidavits that may be filled out and signed.

--If you requested a copy of your birth certificate from the city you were born in, an electronic copy of your birth certificate is acceptable, as long as we can read it.

Volunteers are needed to count Ballots at close of Election Polls on Tuesday, Nov. 5.
Sign up at the Town Clerk's Office or kathy.carson50@gmail.com.

Teen Talk by Casey

The Last Saxon King by Andrew Varga is the story of a modern 16 year old American boy named Dan who finds himself in England in the year 1066! Dan had no idea how he got there, what he is supposed to do, or how to get back to his real time. Luckily he meets Sam who is also a time-jumper. Their job is to keep history from changing. Dan becomes immersed in the brutal and bloody battles of Stamford Bridge and the Battle of Hastings all while other time-jumpers try to kill him! This action packed story continues in book two of the series, The Celtic Deception.

Are you a teen interested in reading and reviewing books for the Teen books section? Stop by the library on a Monday or Tuesday and talk to Casey!
